Dear Dr. Gomes:

The New York/Boston School Participation Team has completed its review of Roxbury Community College's (Institution) application to participate in the Title IV, HEA programs.

Based on that review, the New York/Boston School Participation Team has granted Provisional Certification not to exceed September 30, 2013 to the Institution. The reasons for and the conditions of your Provisional Certification are described in the Provisional Program Participation Agreement (PPA).

No later than June 30, 2013 the Institution must reapply to continue its participation in the Title IV HEA programs. At that time, a determination will be made whether the Institution meets the requirements for full certification.
